FACE-TO-FACE WITH THE MEDITERRANEAN

Nestled in Saint-Raphaël, we are perfectly situated between the ochre-red rocks of Cap Dramont and the iconic coastline. In the nearby Massif de L'Esterel mountain range, inland trails wind through picturesque creeks. There's plenty of wilderness to explore. It speaks to the senses with uplifting scents from pine and pomegranate trees, myrtle bushes, rosemary, and lavender plants.

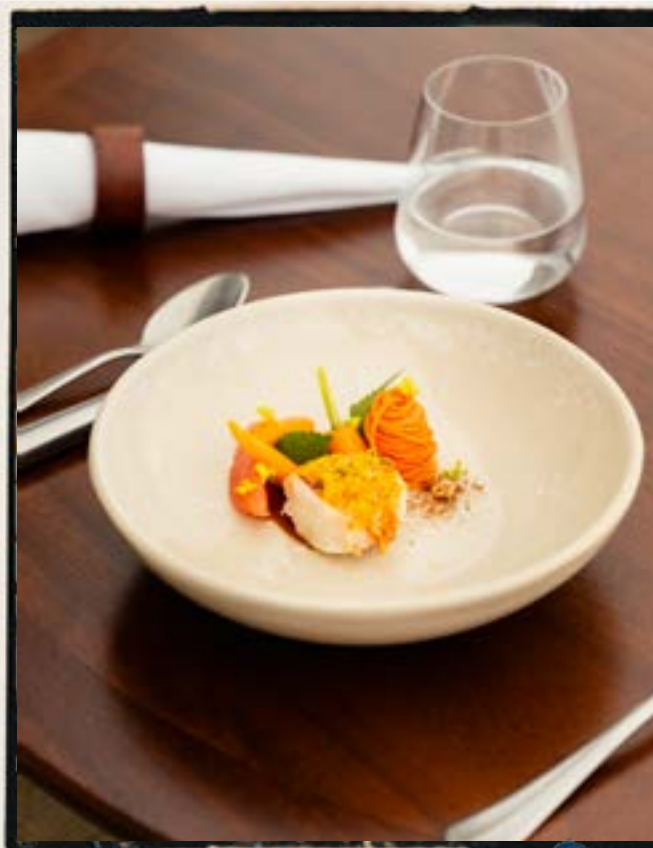

AN ESCAPE WITH STYLE AND SUBSTANCE

Built in the 1950s, the modernist white building integrates seamlessly into the cliffside, offering expansive views from every vantage point. Whether in your room, our pine-filled gardens, or the saltwater pool at the water's edge, you'll always be looking out to sea. Interiors bring the outdoors in with locally sourced vintage objects, hand-picked books, curated artworks, and vibrant flora. Shades of blue, red, and lemon-yellow feel even more vibrant when illuminated by the sun's rays.

VIBRANT FOOD FROM LAND AND SEA

Alexandre Baule represents a new generation of chefs, blending technical skill, respect for ingredients, and creativity. His menus offer a sensory journey through diverse terroirs.
